On his Tour of Ireland

Day 1 October 12 Sunday	Dublin. Arrive Dublin Airport by 10:00AM, where you will meet your driver guide. We will take a panoramic tour of Dublin City. See all of the historical buildings, you will pass by St. Patrick's Cathedral, the tallest church in Ireland. We will stop at the Jameson Distillery, The Distillery is a fascinating place to explore the history and craft of Ireland's iconic whiskey. The distillery features a blend of traditional and modern elements, with beautifully restored buildings that showcase the distilling process. Visitors can take guided tours that include interactive exhibits, informative displays, and tastings of Jameson whiskey. The tour often highlight the history of the brand, its production methods, and the unique flavors of its various expressions. You will have to check out the Temple Bar area, which is a vibrant cultural quarter known for its lively atmosphere, cobblestone streets, and rich history. It's a hub for arts, entertainment, and nightlife, filled with pubs, restaurants, galleries, and shops. Tonight, we all have dinner together at the hotel. Dinner & Overnight at The Camden Court Hotel.
Day 2 October 13 Monday	Dublin-Ennis. Today after breakfast we will make our way to Limerick to visit King John's Castle, which is a striking medieval fortress situated on the banks of the River Shannon. It features impressive stone walls, towers, and a large courtyard, showcasing well-preserved architecture from the 12th century. The castle is notable for its history, having played a significant role in various conflicts throughout the centuries. You can explore the grounds, and enjoy interactive exhibits that delve into the castle's past. The scenic views of the river and the city make it a picturesque spot for photography and a great place to learn about Limerick's history. Overall, it's a fascinating blend of history, architecture, and natural beauty. Overnight at The Temple Gate Hotel.
Day 3 October 14 Tuesday	Ennis. Visiting the Burren in Ireland reveals a stunning landscape of vast limestone pavements, intricately carved by nature, dotted with unique grikes and a rich array of wildflowers, including rare orchids. You can explore ancient sites like the Poul nabrone dolmen and Kilfenora Cathedral, surrounded by the dramatic scenery of the Cliffs of Moher nearby. The area teems with diverse wildlife, from birds to butterflies. With its captivating trails and hidden caves, the Burren is a mesmerizing blend of natural beauty and cultural heritage. Then we will travel onto Doolin, which has a vibrant atmosphere of this charming coastal village. With its charming cottages, friendly locals, and delicious seafood restaurants, Doolin captures the essence of rural Irish life while providing a gateway to breathtaking natural beauty. Then back to Ennis for overnight. Dinner & Overnight at The Temple Gate Hotel.
Day 4 October 15 Wednesday	Ennis- Bundoran. Today we leave Ennis and make our way to Bundoran. On our way to Bundoran we will stop in Castlebar to visit the Museum of Country Life, which is a fascinating destination that explores the rural heritage and everyday life in Ireland from the 1850s to the 1950s. Housed in a beautiful modern building set in picturesque grounds, the museum showcases a wide range of artifacts, including tools, clothing, and household items. Surrounding the museum, you'll find lovely gardens and walking paths. A great place to gain insight into Irish rural life and culture. Then we will make our way to the surf side town of Bundoran. The town fronts on to sandy beaches and little coves, and when the tide is out there are rock pools and wide strands. There are lovely walks along the rocky headlands, some of which are lit up at night. While in Bundoran be sure to make your way to one of many pubs for some fish & chips. Dinner & Overnight at The Great Northern Hotel Bundoran.

Day 5 October 16 Thursday	Bundoran. This morning after breakfast we will travel to short jaunt to Donegal Town to tour the stunning Donegal Castle, first mentioned in 1544 in connection with the wars between the sons of MacSweeney Doe. Wrecked sailors from the Spanish Armada were granted refuge here in 1588. By 1600, it had been captured and taken over by Eoghan Og MacSweeny, an ally of the English, who was unsuccessfully besieged there by his brother Rory in 1601. From there, we head south to the town of Sligo, where you'll have the afternoon to yourself – beginning with lunch. Visit the Yeats uilding Visitors Centre where, for sixty years, the Yeats Society Sligo has celebrated the life and work of WB Yeats and his talented family. Or explore the fairly intact of ruins Sligo Abbey,originally built in 1253 by Maurice Fitzgerald, Baron of Offaly. Or visit Sligo Gaol, or the Famine Memorial. On the way back to Bundoran, we make a brief stop in Drumcliffe to see the High Crosses of St Colmcille's 6th century monastery. Overnight at The Great Northern Hotel Bundoran.
Day 6 October 17 Friday	Bundoran- Dublin. Today we say good bye to Bundoran and head back to Dublin. Once in Dublin we will make a visit to Dublin's Epic Museum. The museum is a dynamic and interactive experience dedicated to Irish emigration and the impact of the Irish diaspora worldwide. Located in the historic CHQ building, the museum features engaging exhibits that explore the stories of millions of Irish people who left their homeland, showcasing their contributions to culture, politics, and society across the globe. Visitors can enjoy multimedia displays, personal stories, and artifacts that bring the emigrant experience to life. The museum also highlights themes of identity and belonging, making it a thought-provoking place to learn about Ireland's history and its connection to the wider world. This afternoon we will have some free time to explore Dublin. Overnight at the Camden Court Hotel.
Day 7 October 18 Saturday	Dublin Airport. Today we are transported to Dublin Airport for our flight home. Still time for duty free shopping.
